

Rhea

Rhea aged 9 is a polite well mannered young lady who is energetic and likes to be active and involved in activities.

She loves to go dancing, make craft things especially using glitter and attends church every week. She is very talented and puts in 100% effort in everything she does. She loves school and likes to try new things.

Rhea struggles with going off to sleep and can take a while to settle at night. She also displays jealous behaviours to younger children and sometimes is verbally challenging.

Rhea is learning that this is not correct behaviour and will apologise for her outbursts. Overtime this is improving and her school report doesn't mention any of this behaviour.

Are you resilient with a robust family support network that could provide an active and loving home for Rhea, where she will benefit from being the youngest child and stay until she is an adult.

Rhea needs a resilient and robust family until she is 18.
